AL BIELEK

Montauk Psychic Program Manager

Al has lead a life most would not choose to live. While many would think that time travel, meeting aliens, and working on secret projects are exciting ventures, Al paid a big price for the privilege. Because those who set the agenda wish to keep their activities secret, Al was robbed of his family, his memories, and ultimately, his identity. They used advanced technologies to erase what was dear to him.

However, their technologies are not perfect. Slowly, the memories came back. Al started meeting others who had been through the same process. Ultimately, a flood of memories returned.

For over ten years, Al has been featured on radio talk shows and as a speaker in many conferences. His story has captivated the attention of tens of thousands of people worldwide.

Many will question why Al hasn't been silenced. Perhaps, those who set the agenda are allowing brief glimpses of the truth to emerge. Perhaps it is something much bigger. Al has recently released a successful and exceptionally complete personal expose of the Philadelphia Experiment on CD. www.albielek.com

PRESTON NICHOLS

Lead Montauk Engineer

Preston is an electrical engineer who graduated from Tampa University. He is one of the foremost experts in the world on electromagnetic phenomena. His expertise has been sought out and used by the industry for four decades. His early career began in the record industry where he sound-engineered for such well-know celebrities as Chubby Checker and George Lucas.

In the 1970's, Preston worked for one of the top defense contractors on Long Island, NY when he realized that he had been living a complete "other life" with a separate set of memories previously unbenownst to him. This led to his investigations of telepathy and the electromagnetic phenomena surrounding it which in turn led to his personal discovery of the huge transmitter at the Air Force Station at Montauk Point and a devastating series of experiments that were held there. These have since become popularized in the Montauk Project book series that include five books authored by Preston telling incredible tales of time travel, mind control, and efforts to control the consciousness of human beings. Preston lives on Long Island and consults to private industry, where he also continues his research into time and psychic phenomena.

DUNCAN CAMERON

Lead Montauk Chair Psychic

Duncan, best known as the enigmatic and charismatic time traveller of the Montauk Project, is a real life person who has recall of being in the military as an Air Force officer in Vietnam and was given one of the most extensive regimens of secret mental training imaginable. He was groomed to be the focal point for the accumulation of decades worth of secret research so that he could penetrate the consciousness of the space/time continuum by sitting in a consciousness amplification device known as the "Montauk Chair." From this experimental role, he was utilized to determine the outcome of various events in time, literally changing time itself.

STEWART SWERDLOW a/k/a "Stan Campbell" Montauk Boy Survivor

Stewart's memory flashes of his strange role in the Philadelphia Experiment and Montauk Project culminated when he was mysteriously introduced to Preston Nichols. Together, they unlocked the secret genetic and mind-control experiments that had haunted Stewart all his life, beginning when doctors discovered at his impending birth that his mother did not have a birth canal! His intriguing family history leads back to the last Czar of Russia, who was executed under the command of his great-uncle, Yakov Sverlov, who in turn became the first president of the Soviet Union.

Stewart's time travel experiences have become legendary amongst Montauk Project circles, as well as his understanding of the space/time continuum. A gifted mentalist, Stewart was born clairvoyant and has the ability to see auric fields and personal archetypes as well as read DNA sequences and mind-patterns. His natural abilities were further enhanced by the Montauk experiments. Stewart has paid dearly for his abilities and his efforts to disseminate information, including almost three years in prison, the breakup of his first marriage, financial destitution, and a recent attack by an Illuminati agent determined to further destroy him. Stewart has written several books, and teaches people how to control their own minds so that no one else will control it for them. www.stewartswerdlow.com

PETER MOON

Researcher/Publisher/Author

Peter is the coauthor of the Montauk Book series, and has written extensively about his adventures with synchronicity as it relates to space-time projects. He began delving into the principles of the mind and spirit when he studied Scientology and ended up working as a personal confidante to L. Ron Hubbard aboard the mystery ship Apollo. During his twenties, he studied implants and how to clear them, two decades before "implant" became a household word.

Additionally, he studied how to accomplish the complete rehabilitation of the human spirit. An unbiased look at these studies led him to an examination of Hubbard's pre-Scientology life and the latter's association with rocket scientist Jack Parsons and the work of Aleister Crowley. At this point, Peter found himself trafficking with some of the most interesting occultists in the world, and more importantly, discovered the remnants of a real life implant station at Montauk Point NY.

He found out about this remarkable information from Preston Nichols, a scientist who actually worked at the implant station and told fascinating and detailed accounts of time travel experimentation. Their collaborations are now historic. Together, they completed a total of six books. Peter continues to study and write in the New York metropolitan area.
