

MORE ABOUT GLOBAL MANIPULATION

Information received 18/3/1998.

Today I would like to lead your attention to a very interesting standard scenario, which has been applied recently in many so called Third and Fourth World Countries, specially in Africa.

These are the steps:

1. A dictatorship, (can be capitalistic, can be socialistic, whatever, or a few years ago colonial government) ends, and a democratic head of state comes to office.
2. Free markets are being established.
3. The world communities starts aid programs. Financial and material aid.
4. News about corruption and human rights violations start pouring in.
5. The IMF and the World Bank stop the payment of all the loans.
6. The population starts starving, anarchy is growing, massacres and terrorism start.
7. An opposition leader, who is usually a member of the former ruling elite, starts demonstrations and builds up a private army to fight for freedom.
8. Civil war starts.
9. United Nation troops move in.
10. Refugees are all over the country. Refugee camps are being set up.
11. The international community, and very often you and me, get an avalanche of request for donations for the poor hungry people in Wattatumba or Chengchung or wherever.
12. The United Nations troops move out, because they don't get any cooperation from the government and because it's too dangerous anyway.
13. The opposition leader makes a deal with global players, multinational companies on the resources of the country.
14. Media support starts for this just cause.
15. The old head of state gets thrown out of the country or loses the elections.
16. The opposition leader takes over.
17. The whole cycle starts again.

Now the best example for this recently was in Congo, Kinshasa, where Kabila, the now-president, did not get to power until he had signed over all the mining rights for the Katanga area with diamonds and gold and uranium and all kinds of things to Anglo-American and De Beers. After he had signed those contracts he then finally got into power and Mobutu had to leave.

You can find this all over the place. It was just one of the prominent examples.

Probably the next country, where this is really going to show up is Sierra Leone.

As usual, please look for yourself, and find out if this is really happening on our planet.

It would be great if we could start ruling our countries, instead of being continually manipulated.
