

WAR AGAINST THE CITIZENS

11/11/01

Right now, I cannot find out with 100% clarity what the aims of Terrorism are.

Apparently it is directed against the 'Establishment', but in reality citizens worldwide are losing more and more of their RIGHTS.

Two months ago something terrible happened. The blame is given to a person called Bin Laden, but, was all this only one-man's idea?

Two months have passed, not one single Terrorist has been brought to justice or executed, and instead we have a "World Alliance" against..... citizens.

Laws are being passed, at high speed to allow E-Mails to be checked, interference with Bank accounts, phones can now be listened to, everywhere we can be stopped and asked for our documentation, all in the name of protection against Terrorism.

Police and the army are now being used in areas of our daily life, all in all an acceleration towards a 'One World Police State'. Citizens will have less RIGHTS while the 'state' will have more.

The Anthrax attack is also the work of a 'master player'. About 4 people died, but through the now 100% controlled media, millions and millions of people got scared practically to death.

Oh yes, people that are scared will agree to all these Police State Laws (in the end aimed against themselves). There is not much logical thinking in scared citizens.

Two months have past; the US has been testing again its armament and using some of its surplus weapons. Ruined the life of many people. Have done absolutely NOTHING to end Terrorism in Spain and Palestine, for example, as there the killing of innocent people continues unabated.

It is not so hard to make Alliances with GOVERNMENTS as they all belong to one same group or Brotherhood which have a common aim: total control over this planet's citizens!

AmBush said that Americans respect human lives. If so, why are they allowing the death of so many in Iraq? Why do they permit so much pollution to continue causing the Global Warming? Why do they produce land mines by the millions, just to mention a 'few' things.

No, amBush and his Allies care absolutely nothing about human life, they are kind of reptilians, cold blooded. Tony Blair and amBush look as two happy school children together. Why? Simply because their long dreamed plan about a Police State is getting nearer by each agreement reached with the 'Alliance'.

Please, give it a look yourself.
