Confidential GOVERNMENT_ALLEGATIONS (Taken from an LRH advice of January 1980.

SYMPTOMS OSA NW Order 18 WILFUL FALSE REPORTS)

It's been my experience with government employees that they don't know their own codes and laws and will pretend to quote non-existent statutes. They might simply tell you that there is something wrong with what you're doing when there actually isn't. One is prone to underestimate the criminality of certain government agencies. I know of many instances of the above. It's one of the ways they operate. So, any government allegations should be looked over very carefully as they are very suspect.
