

SEA ORGANIZATION

FLAG ORDER 2722

5 February 1971

COMPETENCE

A Sea Org Member is expected to be able to do any duty assigned.

This means trained or not, hatted or not.

This is the Competence expected on any post or at any time.

A Sea Org Member is expected to get things done, with or without orders.

If a Sea Org Member cannot set up, organize and perform any duty required he is open to a charge of STUPIDITY.

There is a point where Stupidity ends and Treason begins.

Any failure to handle a situation brings about this charge.

Reported to the MAA, where it is clearly proven that a situation remained unhandled or was mishandled and loss or damage of any kind occurred, a Court of Ethics must be convened and if guilty the offender is fined a minimum of a week's pay and bonuses and a maximum of a month's pay.

Repeating Offenders may be sent by a Court to the Fitness Board.
